

Participant Worksheet for “Any Course Can Be a DEISJ Course”

Carla DuBose-Simons, Ph.D., Naomi Edwards, Ph.D., and Kim Coleman, Ph.D.

Your Task:	Circle key terms that you can connect with concepts, theories, or frameworks in your discipline. Underline aspects of the learning outcomes that confuse you or that you have questions about.	Comment ways you could relate the outcomes to material you already teach (could be an assignment you already give or readings you already assign).	Comment ways you can relate the DEISJ outcomes to learning outcomes you already have.
DEISJ Learning Outcome #1:	Describe the historical and contemporary societal factors that shape the development of individual and group identity involving race, class, and gender.
DEISJ Learning Outcome #2:	Analyze the role that complex networks of social structures and systems play in the creation and perpetuation of the dynamics of power, privilege, oppression, and opportunity.
DEISJ Learning Outcome #3:	Apply the principles of rights, access, equity, and autonomous participation to past, current, or future social justice action.
