

The State University of New York

Accomplishments... My Graduation... New Opportunities...

David Lavallee, Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost
University Faculty Senate Spring Plenary
May 2013

Thank you!

SUNY's commitment to Shared Governance ensured not only that faculty had a voice in System work, but that faculty played a vital role in shaping and refining key initiatives and policies.

What We Have Accomplished

- Data Reporting Policy
 - Recent SUNY Trustee resolution outlines a plan for data reporting that:
 - Confirms our commitment to transparency and our responsibilities for reporting
 - Supports user-friendly access to data
 - Includes appropriate protections and safeguards

Our Accomplishments Are National Models

- Power of SUNY Well Received
 - Annual University CXO Summit – Marcus Evans
 - Convening of Urban Serving Universities by the Gates Foundation, APLU and USU

Next Steps

- System Provost Transition

- After four years, I am graduating from my role at System to new opportunities within SUNY
 - New Paltz – initial focus on faculty mentoring
 - System-wide leadership development in conjunction with SUNY Center for Professional Development and SUNY Leadership Institute
- Much work to do before July's end

Continuing Our Progress

- Building a Culture of Student Completion and Success
- Reaffirming our commitment to core principles
 - A policy document from 1987 reminded us that our core commitment to student success has not changed; but we do have new tools to help us achieve our goals.
