Resolution on the Necessity for Campus Presidents

WHEREAS college presidents are expected to lead their campuses in the pursuit of academic excellence, and

WHEREAS college presidents have responsibilities for the conduct of external relations and fundraising, and

WHEREAS a recent Middle States visitation team questioned the effectiveness of shared presidencies, and

WHEREAS the reports filed by the three campus alliances provide no support for the principle of shared presidencies,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the University Faculty Senate of the State University of New York recommends that each state operated campus have its own president.
